Department	Instructional Services
Description of Need	FCPS continually requires curriculum assessments and exams for students in the International Baccalaureate (IB) Diploma Program (DP) and Career-Related Program. These programs mandate a series of internal assessments, conducted by FCPS teachers, and external assessments, administered by the IBO.
Background Information	Through its partnership with the International Baccalaureate Organization (IBO), FCPS provides students and teachers the official curriculum, assessments, professional development, and authorization processes for the following programs offered by FCPS schools: IB Primary Years Program (PYP), IB Middle Years Program (MYP), IB Diploma Program (DP) and IB Career-related Program (CP). IBO has historically served as the sole provider and vendor of the official curriculum, assessments, professional development, and all authorization and evaluation services essential for maintaining program fidelity and ensuring the global validity of the diplomas and certificates awarded to FCPS students. Successful exam scores may qualify students for college credit.
